

PMI gets the prestigious “Golden Peacock National Training Award” for the year 2016. The award is instituted by the Institute of Directors, a very prestigious body having eminent persons from the fields of industry, government and judiciary as members of its Executive Council to identify excellence in training practices at the organization as a whole. This award is considered a significant achievement in the field of excellence in Training by providing a role model in business.

The awards were announced on 24th March 2016 by the awards Jury under chairmanship of Justice M.N. Venkatchaliah, former Chief Justice, Supreme Court of India. The award will be presented at a specially organized Golden Peacock ceremony being held on Wednesday, 20th April 2016, in Dubai.

Golden Peacock Awards®

The same award was won by PMI five times earlier in the years 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2010.